THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

The title of this vignette might be "Come Back Little BEBE," and it's for the birds.

The protagonist is Bebe, a two-year-old parakeet, "much above the average intelligence," who belongs to the FELIX NOTEMAN family, 651 Crocker avenue.

The bird did a 23-skidoo out of their home Sunday night and hasn't been seen since.

Ten-year-old BOBBY NOTEMAN was so upset over the loss of his feathered friend that he struck a fever of 102 Sunday night and had to say home from school Monday.

So if you come across a stray parakeet that lists among his vocabulary such words as "Bobby, Billy (name of the youngest Noteman, 4) or hello, pretty Bebe," you might give the Notemans a buzz.

After all, they figure a Bebe in the hand is worth at least two birds in the bush.

MRS. R. H. TSCHIRGI left this week to join her husband who's on Guam as a Naval lieutenant.

TRUSTEE RACES SLATED NEXT FRIDAY - MAY 15

Voters of the Jefferson elementary school district and high will go to the polls Friday, May 15, to name one trustee for each district.

In the high school race, Mildred McGeein, incumbent, will face Guy Kitson of Sharp Park for the three-year term.

James McKay of Broadmoor will vie against present school trustee Michael Callan in the elementary district contest.

In the high school district polling places will be located at Rockaway beach, Pacific Manor, Sharp Park, Bayshore and Brisbane. Six balloting places will be open for the Daly City, Colma and Broadmoor areas.

All of the polling places will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m., with the exception of Brisbane, which will remain open from 1 to 7 p.m.

Six precincts divide up the elementary district and a voting site is designated for each one.

MANCUSO 'ENLIGHTENS' 250 AT ANNEX MEET

Mixed reactions were evidenced Wednesday night at the Jefferson high auditorium where San Francisco's Supervisor Edward Mancuso delivered a lengthy and polished opus on the grandeurs of living in San Francisco.

The supervisor pointed out that he appeared there "not to sell the people a bill of goods," but to "enlighten" them on the advantages of consolidation and/or annexation to San Francisco.

A crowd of some 250 property owners from Westlake and Broadmoor, areas sought by San Francisco, were on hand to hear the discussion.

The only marked oral opposition to Mancuso, other than the many pointed questions, was by San Mateo Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr.

He pointed out to Mancuso that while San Francisco's bonded indebtedness is more than $100,000,000, this county's is only $1,000,000.

The SF supervisor told the people they shouldn't dwell on the idea of saving dollars and cents, but should consider the advantages of living in a big city and all the benefits derived from it.

He also pointed out that in a community such as Broadmoor the burden of installing and maintaining streets might become financially impossible, since San Mateo county might not render any aid.

Questions asked from the audience were concerned with comparative tax rates, water and transportation in the two counties.

Mancuso said if the people wanted to get down to "nickels and dimes" he was prepared to show them evidence at a later date that would prove San Francisco living more economical.

City Council Answers Annexation Rumors

It has been interesting to observe statements which have been made by proponents of annexation to the effect that San Francisco should annex Westlake (which is a part of Daly City) and Broadmoor (which is an unincorporated subdivision to the south of Daly City).

It is felt that the time has come to clear up some of the misunderstandings which seem to cloud the thinking of the proponents of annexation, and to present a clear-cut statement of pertinent facts.

FIRST, let us say that this statement is neither pro nor con on the subject of potential annexation;

Man Hospitalized In $15,000 House Fire

Three persons, two of them firemen, received injuries Monday night in a fire that consumed the home of Edward Parker, 28, on 342 San Mateo avenue.

Parker, who was trapped in the garage where the fire apparently erupted, was taken to San Francisco hospital with second degree burns.

Fireman Dave Franzioa of Co. No. 6 was overcome from smoke and was given first aid treatment on the spot by Co. No. 1 Lieut. Frank Specht and Co. No. 6 Captain Al Silicani, who later rushed him to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment. He was released following hospital care.

Archie Banfield, of Station No. 1, received a lacerated hand and was given first aid treatment on the scene.

An estimated $15,000 damage was done by the fire that gutted the home and completely consumed a '51 Cadillac.

Firemen said the fire apparently began about 8 p.m. Monday when fumes from gasoline Parker was using for washing his car were ignited by a furnace.

The flames spread quickly and by the time local firemen arrived they were lashing out above the roof.

Companies 1, 2, 4 and 6 battled the conflagration for nearly two hours.

Firemen were not notified until sometime after the blaze began, they said, because Mrs. Parker could not detemine whether to call the local or San Francisco department, since their home is near the boundary.

Mrs. Parker and the couple's seven-year-old child escaped the flames when warned by Parker from the garage.

RAID JEFF HIGH GYM AGAIN; ONLY GET FOUR DOLLARS

For the second time in as many months the men's gymnasium at Jefferson High was broken into Monday, but this time the thief realized a profit of a mere $4 or $5 in change.!

The burglar, a juvenile, was apprehended the following morning by San Francisco police in a car stolen from J & P motors, 2450 Junipero Serra boulevard.

At that time he had about $3.50 with him, apparently the money he had taken from a box of loose football cleats in the gym.

The juvenile gained entry to the gym by breaking the window on the north side, then smashing the window of the coach's office, police said. He entered sometime between 5:30 and 7 p.m., while the office was vacant.

When Coach Anthony Giammona returned about 7:05 p.m. he found the office throughly ransacked.

The coaches reported that nothing was taken except the small change and a starting gun, although two boxes of film had been opened and left there.

The youth, after questioning by police here, admitted having broken into the gym.

He was picked up Tuesday at 10:25 a.m., an hour before the car he was riding in was reported stolen by the J & P motors.

The burglar was turned over to county juvenile authorities.

City Council Hires New Personnel

At a caucus session Monday night the city council approved hiring of two aditdional city personnel, one for the street department and one for the city clerk's office.

Arnold Eddinger, of 87 San Pedro avenue, was named to the position of street maintenance man, at a starting salary of $281.22.

Appointed junior clerk was Mrs. Kathleen Heggum, 142 Thiers street. She will receive a beginning salary of $207.87.

Both positions become effective Saturday, May 16.

CTA Representative Will Meet Monday With Jeff Hi Board

A two-pronged investigation, by the County Central Labor Council and the California Teachers' Association was launched this week into the dismissal of three Jefferson elementary and eleven high school teachers.

The labor council voted unanimously Monday night to determine if three elementary teachers were removed for being "active in union matters."

Delegates from all AFL unions in the county raised the question as to whether the trio was discharged because of union activity.

Meet With High School

Meanwhile, Harry A. Fosdick, field representative for the CTA, said yesterday that he would meet with the high school board of trustees Monday night to talk over with the trustees the "inhuman procedure" used in dismissing eleven Jeff high instructors.

The field representative said his organization wasn't primarily concerned with whether the removals were right or wrong, but the methods which were used.

He said the group has done some investigation already on the nature of selection of those not to be re-hired, but hadn't arrived at any "definite conclusion" yet.

However, he said the manner in which teachers are informed of their dismissal should be corrected.

Should Counsel

He also said some counselling should be held with the teachers beforehand, with the idea in mind that they might correct, or, at least, be told of their deficiencies.

He said the high school teachers weren't even warned in advance of their impending firing, and were forced "to draw their own conclusions" as to the reasons.

No Union Tie-In

Fosdick sad the CTA found no evidence of a connection between union activity and the dismissals.

Daly City Bank of America Branch Adds Banking Innovation

AN INNOVATION in banking methods began last week at the Daly City branch of the Bank of America. Neva Almeida, commercial teller, invites customers who are in a hurry to Express window, where only one transaction may be made. This system, originated by James Foley of the bank's San Francisco headquarters, has been greeted with resounding approval by the clientele, according to Dan Harris, local branch manager. Harris said the single-transaction window will be in use on all Saturdays, and at other busy periods. Use of the single-service window has resulted in the speeding up of service, Harris pointed out. He predicted other banks would probably institute the system in the near future.

Statement of The City Council of The City of Daly City...

With reference to recent utterances of proponents of annexation who advocate that San Francisco should annex parts of Northern San Mateo County that question, if ever presented, will be decided by the voters of this area (presuming that the voters throughout the State of California will first ratify an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California to begin with). However, no person can have an intelligent opinion on the subject unless he has a true picture of the facts for his consideration.

WHETHER OR NOT the people of Daly City (of which Westlake is a part) determine that it is more to their advantage to become a part of San Francisco County or remain part of San Mateo County will depend on JUST EXACTLY WHAT CONDITIONS will exist under each situation.

We will not concern ourselves with the question of San Francisco annexing Broadmoor, an unincorporated area, for two reasons:

1. Broadmoor is not under our jurisdiction.
2. Since Broadmoor is not contiguous to San Francisco, it would be impossible for San Francisco to annex Broadmoor unless Daly City were first to consolidate with San Francisco.

Certain statements have been attributed to San Francisco proponents of annexation, which statements are not true, and therefore clarification is needed. Some of them are:

1. It has been said that "lower water rates" would result.

NOTHING COULD BE FARTHER FROM THE TRUTH. Daly City, which produces its own water from wells, has one of the lowest water rates in the State of California. Further, Daly City water is practically 100% pure, by State test; it is soft water, as housewives recognize on wash day, which results in greater savings on soap or detergents. It requires no chloridation nor fluoridation —it is absolutely pure, fresh from Mother Earth.

Daly City residents have approved a $390,000 revenue bond issue for additions to the water system.... THIS BOND ISSUE WILL BE PAID BY REVENUE FROM THE WATER SYSTEM, AT NO INCREASE IN THE LOW WATER RATE ... AND WITHOUT THE ADDITION OF ONE PENNY ON THE DALY CITY TAX RATE!

2. It has been said that "lower utility rates" would result.

BUT THE TRUTH IS that Daly City telephone, gas and electric rates are the same as in San Francisco. As a matter of fact, Daly City phone users may dial, without toll, several neighboring peninsula communities, while ... San Francisco phone users must pay a toll to phone the same numbers.

3. It has been said that "better property values" would result.

WE DON'T THINK SO. ... in fact, the reason so many people from San Francisco have been buying homes in Daly City ... in Westlake and many other Daly City sub-divisions such as Edgewood Terrace, Sterling Manor, Garden Valley, Concordia Tract, etc., is simply the fact that PEOPLE GET MORE FOR THEIR MONEY IN DALY CITY.

Ask yourself the question! Isn't it a fact that the reason YOU live in Daly City is because you were able to purchase a better home for less money than elsewhere?

4. It has been said that "lower taxes" would result.

It is a matter of public record that similar homes in Daly City pay LOWER TAXES than similar homes in San Francisco. Furthermore, a tax increase of between 80c and $1.00 is slated for San Francisco residents next year!

SO FAR AS TAXES ARE CONCERNED ... it must be observed that a City Sales Tax of ½ of 1% is charged in San Francisco.

We, Councilmen of Daly City, are proud to state that there is NO City Sales Tax in Daly City.

THEREFORE, a Daly City businessman is able to give you MORE FOR YOUR MONEY—at least, to the extent of ½ of 1% on your purchases. It should pay YOU to shop in Daly City.

5. It is said that "better Fire Protection" would result.

THIS IS NOT TRUE. Daly City, with its combined full time and volunteer Fire Organization, can respond to Fire Calls anywhere in Daly City much more rapidly than can be done in San Francisco.

Daly City, a relatively small city of 22,000 inhabitants, has FOUR strategically-located firehouses (one firehouse for each 5,500 people) and is currently constructing an additional firehouse and purchasing additional equipment.

Fire losses in Daly City are among the lowest in the United States of America.

Credit for this belongs to Chief Elmer Kennedy and his force of more than 80 well-trained firefighters.

6. It has been said that "better Police Protection" would result.

THIS IS NOT TRUE. A police call in Daly City is responded to by our well-trained and well-equipped department in a matter of minutes ... literally minutes. THREE-WAY radio on the police vehicles, controlled by a main station in the City Hall, accounts for efficient operation and quick dispatch.

Furthermore, the Police Department operates a City-owned, modernly-equipped Ambulance Service, which is available 24 hours a day, for FREE EMERGENCY SERVICE ... this also responds in a matter of minutes, and has been responsible for saving many lives in this area.

The Police Department operates radio-control and fire-alarm services for the Broadmoor Police Department and the Colma Fire District by way of BEING GOOD NEIGHBORS TO THE UNINCORPORATED AREAS ADJOINING DALY CITY.

7. It has been said that "better mail service" and "better store delivery service" would result.

THIS IS NOT TRUE. Daly City, which operates as a branch of the U. S. Post Office, has the same post office delivery services as has San Francisco ... with sub-offices as required ... due to the splendid cooperation of Postmaster John Fixa.

SO FAR AS STORE DELIVERY is concerned ... Daly City residents enjoy the same FREE DELIVERY ZONE services as San Francisco, simply because of the fact that we, in Daly City, are practically all home-owners, rearing families in a good environment; and our buying power gives us this advantage.

8. It has been said that "better transportation" would result.

Daly City does not enjoy the best transportation facilities, true. But neither do the residents of San Francisco's Park Merced, Sunset District and other districts of San Francisco. Transportation is a problem in all cities in Northern California.

The local officials are currently working on an inter-city transportation system.

These are just some clarifications on subjects by certain San Francisco proponents of annexation or consolidation.

WE BELIEVE IT IS OUR DUTY TO BRING THE FACTS TO THE PEOPLE, SO THAT THEY MAY HAVE A CLEAR UNDERSTANDING OF THE TRUE PICTURE.

We could point out additional advantages which, in our opinion, are enjoyed by the people of Daly City. For example, garbage collections:

We understand that San Francisco garbage collection costs $1.00 per month and more.
In Daly City, through a contract between the City and a LOCAL concern, residents are charged only 35c, which is collected on their water bill. However, if Daly City residents pay their water bill by the 15th of the month, the receive a 25c discount, so the net result is that Daly City residents pay ONLY 10c per month for garbage collections.

CAN ANY OTHER CITY IN AMERICA BOAST OF SUCH LOW COST FOR SUCH GOOD SERVICE?

Some complicated problems which would result, and for which no answers have been presented, are these:

Does an annexed area inherit the astronomical bonded indebtedness of the annexing area?

How are the different public school systems, personnel, properties and policies to be integrated?

What happens to the ownership and operation of publicly-owned utilities in both the annexed and annexing areas?

What happens to the Civil Service status of municipal employees, when they operate under different retirement systems? Who pays for it?

What about rent controls? There are none in Daly City.

WE DEFINITELY STATE that, if consolidation of all or a part of San Mateo County with San Francisco would result in better advantages for the people of San Mateo County, that is one thing.

But, if Consolidation should result in lesser advantages and higher costs, that is another thing.

We do not believe that the proponents of annexation have been in sufficient possession of the facts to warrant an unbiased opinion.

We feel that it is always good policy not to leap at conclusions....

... In other words, before expressing a definite opinion in one way or another, the people should know just EXACTLY what advantages or disadvantages might result.

Sincerely,

Edw. J. Dennis A. J. Gaggero Paul Green
J. H. Kennedy Joseph J. Verducci

Labor Probes Teacher Dismissals

"Only one of the eleven was even associated with the union," he said.

He pointed out that his organization was not attempting to "evaluate class-room activity. That's the local board's duty." But he did emphasize the fact that the methods of firing were "indefensible."

Thomas A. Small, labor council president, said the union was only concerned at this time with the removal of the elementary teachers.

"Something" Not Right

He said, "We have reason to expect something is not right," in the laying off of the three elementary teachers.

He revealed that all council delegates were named Monday to a "committee of the whole" to study the matter.

Reports of activities of teacher unions throughout the state and of efforts by some school boards, trustees and superintendents to disrupt the situation were discussed at length by the council delegates at their special Monday meeting.

To Study Carefully

"The labor council and all of the American Federation of Labor members in San Mateo county will go into this matter in Daly City very carefully," Small said.

"We will have legal advice and assistance, plus support of all the union movement in the state to see that the matter is clarified to the satisfaction of all parties concerned," he explained.

H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the elementary district, said at the time teachers' contracts were renewed by the board, the matter of "membership in a union was not considered."

He said the primary reason for the trio's dismissal was that they were third-year probationary teachers and the board felt their services would "not be required by the district next year."

CATFISHING

Catfishing at Laguna Dam in Imperial County has been excellent during the past week, according to the National Automobile Club.

She plans to stay on the island for 18 months or two years. The remainder of the Tschirgis will also be following in that general direction soon. He is son RAYMOND H., airman 1/c, who is scheduled to leave for Korea after survival training.

Western music fans were seen transfixed on the "top of the hill" this week, making the most of the melodies wafting forth from the service station of JOE LEWKOWITZ. Joe's radio-loudspeaker combination has the pedestrians jogging across the arterials to the tune of the two-beat.

Caustic comment of the week: An unidentified lady, leaving the city hall and the words "truth and liberty" mused, "I wonder which one we get here?"

PHILLIP RANCATORE, who almost sat astride a bomb designed expressly for him recently, has decided that his Plymouth that contained the lethal charge has lost all its appeal. He's thinking about selling. Any buyers?

Two gorgeous-gammed golfing sisters, MARLENE and ALICE BAUER, were seen on the weekend at RUDIE'S, sampling up the cuisine there, along with the rest of the family.

Incidentally, the hossmen may soon be stopping there for a spell. Rudie has installed 16 stalls in the rear for the equestrians in quest of a pause that refreshes.

There's at least one man who doesn't swallow the San Francisco bilge about their having better this n' that (better than Daly City, that is).

NICHOLAS SHEHADI, assistant manager of Westlake Motel Corp., says the Daly City police department is "the best I've ever seen." In his business, he explains, you have to deal with police quite a bit.

He cites many instances where police responded quicker'n you could say "jack robinson" to aid ailing persons, and other cases where they appeared with dispatch to take care of over-exuberant wassailers.

To ad further bouquets, he says the local PD staff discharge their duties with intelligence and pleasantness.

And we might add, what city police department has so many golfers who could tea off with IKE EISENHOWER and still spot him a few strokes?

day in an altercation over taxi fare.

Charged with assault and battery and disturbing the peace, Larios' case comes up Tuesday in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's Munipal court.

Police were summoned by a Yellow Cab taxi driver, who complained that Larios paid him only $2 of the $3.50 fare on arriving at his home here.

Sgt. David Hansen said that when he and the cab driver knocked on the front door Larios responded, "partly disrobed" and talked to them in a "slurry, vile, insulting" manner. There was a "strong aroma" of liquor about him, the Sgt. said.

He admitted owing the driver $1.50 but refused to pay it, according to police.

He then attempted to assault Hansen with his fists, but was finally subdued and handcuffed, Sgt. Hansen related.

Larios is assistant manager of the F. V. Valdes Co. in San Francisco.

Apparently the blaze was started by children playing in the lot, firemen said.

One false alarm summoned the department to Westlake Monday afternoon following the first grass blaze.

Dear Editor:

My family and I wish to express to you our sincere appreciation for sending us The Record since July, 1950, when we temporarily left our Daly City home under orders to other parts.

We have all derived a great deal of pleasure keeping up with our friends and neighbors and the activities at home through reading The Record.

However, upon receipt of this letter please discontinue sending The Record to us, as we are departing our present station and expect to permanently occupy our home at 151 East Vista avenue in the near future.

THE RECORD

Daly City, Calif.
Dear Sir:

On behalf of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association, the Department of Public Health and Welfare, and the Medical Society who sponsored the San Mateo County Chest X-ray Survey we wish to thank you for your splendid cooperation in publicizing the Survey.

With the editorial support and the newspaper coverage of this propect, we could not have reached the total of 30,000 X-rays which were taken during the five-week period.

Mr. T. F. McGuigan, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, and I extend our personal thanks to you.

Yours very truly,
Mary Helen Williamson
Coordinator

"Those birds are just waiting for us to plant these seeds so they can dig 'em up and eat 'em," George Rimer remarked, leaning on his garden hoe.

"More likely they hope we'll turn up some cutworms, or other pests," the Mrs. explained. "Birds don't scratch up garden seeds."

George picked up the hoe. "They better not! Not after all the trouble I had picking them and shelling them out of the pods last fall."

"I'd have to send West for seed like this," said the Little Woman. "That's why I let some plants go to seed and asked you to pick them. I'm like that economist at your office who said business must save 'seed-corn' in the form of profits in order to produce more goods for customers."

"That economist knows his onions!" George grinned. "He thinks the new administration will cut expenditures and then lower taxes so business can save more 'seed corn.'"

"I have more seed than last year, so maybe I can save more 'seed corn' too! Then I'll be running my garden like an up-to-date business."

"Maybe you'll have seed to sell," George suggested, knocking off for the day.

The Mrs. sighed. "I don't want to sell any, but I would like to have twice as much planted. So careful with your planting, and if we're lucky, I'll have enough "seed corn' to impress your business expert!"

In The Past

TEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Thursday, May 6—In the midst of a crowd of over fifty soldiers and sailors, a pair of fist fights featured Daly City's rising tide of night life on Mission street, Sunday morning, soon after closing time for local taverns.

A detail of Daly City police officers broke up the first fist fight, a slugfest between an army sergeant and a private, and put the two men in the police car. At this point a second fight broke out, and officers were forced to apprehend another soldier, marching him off toward the police car.

Part of the loot of the Albany hi-jackers who engaged in the shooting with Albany police last week was recovered in Daly City Saturday by local police.

Thirty-five automobile batteries and nine ignition coils were found in a vacant lot on Frankfort street and later taken to police headquarters here.

The public relations branch at Fort Belvoir, Virginia has announced that Adi Petrocchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Petrocchi, 180 Santa Barbara avenue, was graduated from the Engineer Officer Candidate school there recently. He is now a second lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army.

Petrocchi, who attended Jefferson Union high school, enlisted in the Army March 26, 1942, at San Francisco.

There will be free collections of rubbish.

Open for the first time this week, the new gymnasium and swimming pool at Jefferson Union high school will afford high school students and local adults and children recreational facilities enjoyed by few other communities.

The gym and pool were built by a bond issue floated in the high school district and a federal grant. They comprise one of the finest physical education plants in the entire state.

Fees, Regulations Set For Center Use

The recreation commission met Monday night and established regulations and a fee schedule for use of the community center.

The following clubhouse fees were agreed upon: Dancing, $60; card parties, $15; benefits, $50; wedding reception, $75.

The commission also established 15 as the minimum size of a group to have exclusive use of a clubroom and facilities.

It was also decided to have an employee of the recreation department on duty at the clubhouse community center whenever such buildings are used by the public.

Closing time for the clubhouse was set at 12 midnight.

It was also announced at the meeting that the elementary softball league would get underway in the next two weeks.

The commission approved application from the Calico Clickers to use the center in September for their Fall folk dance festival, in event of rain which would not allow them to hold the event outdoors.

They Richly Deserve The Honor

In some respects the mothers of today are vastly different than those of two or three generations ago. The principal difference lies in their outlook.

The modern mother is not a stay-at-home. Her world does not begin at the front door and end at the back door. This does not mean that her family and her home are any less important to her than her mother's or grandmother's families were to them.

It is simply that women's interest have broadened. They are more alert to the fact that by taking an active part in educational and civic affairs and even politics makes for a better community and a better world for their children. Many women today are active in business not only as jobholders but as proprietors.

But their wider activities and broader outlook have not taken from them the essential tenderness and affection that marks the relationship between mother and family. Her thoughts still center primarily around her loved ones. And her sacrifices for her family are not less a part of the modern mother than they were for the mothers of long ago.

Certainly the mother of today is richly deserving of the honor bestowed on her on Mother's Day. In fact, she is so deserving that the family might well consider being more thoughtful of her every day of the year.

Discretion For The Coming Year

Support of the two Jefferson school districts, which amounts to the bulk of tax money paid out by property owners, shouldn't rest so heavily on local residents for the coming year if the districts' boards use discretion in their spending.

The dollar base for state support of all public school districts in California for the last fiscal year averages $147 per pupil in average daily attendance.

In November of last year the taxpayers voted into the state constitution a figure of $180 per pupil, largely in the hope of property tax relief.

This means an average of $33 per pupil higher than the figure for 1952-53.

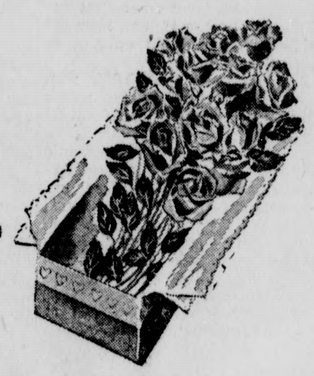

Taxpayers of the two districts should be aware of the large increase in state money (nearly 20 per cent) which will come to the two local districts for 1953-54.

We are aware that the education problem in this area is near-critical, but we believe at least some of the increase in state support should be translated into lower property taxes.

MY MAD WORLD

by Leonore Brewer

On April 10, 1912, there set sail across the Atlantic on her maiden voyage, the White Star Line's unsinkable ship, Titanic. Five days later she was at the bottom of the sea, taking with her two-thirds of her passengers and crew.

Hollywood has seen fit to commemorate this tragedy by an opus of the same name, starring Barbara Stanwyck and Clifton Webb. It is a flimsy tale of a wrecked marriage, with a one-time poor girl battling for her children with a wealthy, decadent, worldly man. Considering Hollywood's code in this sort of thing, there should be very little doubt in anyone's mind as to who will win this unequal battle. When a clean-cut, wholesome, American boy from Purdue appears on the scene to help mama keep daughter, one feels that the cards have definitely been stacked against Webb, who favors a titled European marriage.

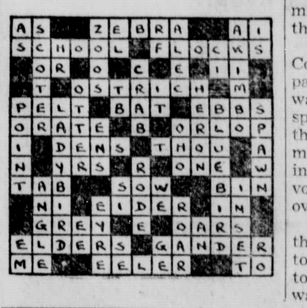

With the camera focused on the elegant Miss Stanwyck's emoting, much of the true drama of the tragedy is set aside in favor of a once-over-lightly study of the relationships between husband and wife, wife and daughter, wife and son, and so on ad nauseum. Very little time is left to detail the heroism and selfishness with which the individual human beings met what was the greatest moment in their lives.

Most of the well-known incidents are there — John Jacob Astor's handing his expectant wife into the lifeboat, the Strausses refusing to be separated in their old age, and the band playing up to the very last moment. But no mention is made of the lifeboats which were launched half-empty, many passengers preferring to take their chances with the "unsinkable" vessel; others lining up at the purser's office to obtain their valuables, and the unforgiveable selfishness of some occupants of some of the lifeboats, who made absolutely no attempt to pick up survivors swimming around in the icy waters.

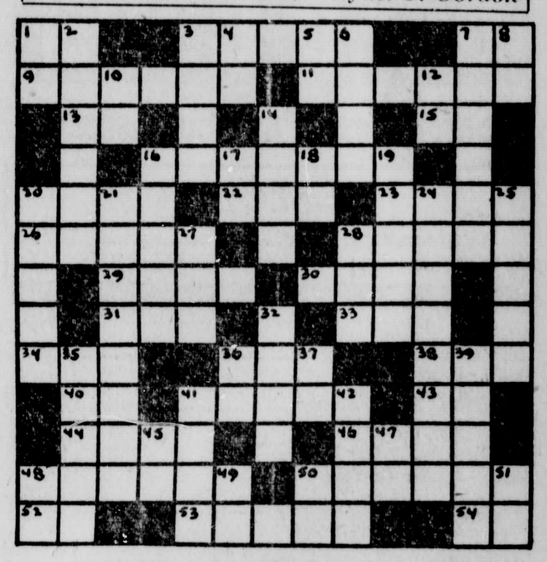

Nor is much mention made of the fact that, although the ship collided with the berg at about 11:40 p.m., the first CQD was not sent out until 12:15 a.m. The story of the ship Californian does not appear, although she was not more than eight or ten miles from the disaster and could see the Titanic and the rockets which she sent up in a vain call for aid. Nor is any mention made of the mystery ship, seen by the Californian, and possibly closer still. The final ironic touch: The Californian had only one Marconi operator and he removed his headset at 11:35, five minutes before the Titanic struck the berg.

What was the decision of the Court at the end of hundreds of pages of testimony? The disaster was "brought about by excessive speed," speed that was partially the fault of the public, which demands shorter and short crossings. There was no negligence involved, merely the mistake of overconfidence.

Somehow, I have drifted from the point of the column, which was to review the film. Well, it failed to live up to its name, Titanic. It wasn't much more than a sloop.

JEFFS REGAIN PAL LEAD

Squelch HMB, 12-0; Down Burlingame 6-1

Jefferson varsity nine barely worked up a sweat Tuesday at Half Moon Bay to win a 12-0 shutout and put themselves atop the Peninsula Athletic league standings again.

They will attempt to keep on top the heap when they meet Capuchino here today at 3:15.

Apprentice hurler Lowell Creighton, who usually takes a back seat to such stalwarts as Joe Lewkowitz and Don Delbon, feathered his cap with a three-hit effort over the opposition.

The Indian benches were cleared at the Half Moon Bay Diamond as coach Lou Martin gave his charges all an opportunity to get a little exercise and practice strategies that would be too risky in a crucial contest.

Creighton and Catcher John Madden led hitting with three singles in four trips. John Carroll tripled in the fourth and got two and four.

The win gave the Jeffs a 6-2 record, putting them in front of runner-up South San Francisco, with a 5-2 mark.

The Warriors, however, have a chance to tie for first place in a game Tuesday with Capuchino. The contest was rained out earlier.

BURLINGAME FRAY

Friday the Jeffs, behind six-hit pitching by Joe Lewkowitz, coasted to victory over Burlingame.

Lewkowitz also banged out a home run with one aboard in the sixth inning, to spark a four-run rally.

Burlingame grabbed a one-run lead in the second canto, but the Jeffs came back to tie it up in the third.

The Indians took a one-run edge in the fourth frame when Larry Blanchard's drive to center field bounded off the mit of George Simpson for a tround tripper, breaking the tie.

BASKETBALL CLASS STARTS AT CENTER

Youngsters who are interested in learning a little more about basketball have been invited to attend classes beginning Monday at the community center.

The basketball classes, under the direction of the recreation department, will be offered from 3:30 to 5:30 each day thru Thursday.

They wil lbe instructed by Dick Milkovich.

The following weeks courses in volleyball and badminton will be offered.

The instruction is limited to elementary school students.

Mussel Quarantine Set In This Area

H. D. Chope, director of the San Mateo county health department, has announced that a mussel quarantine order has been established in this county, as throughout the state.

The qurantine is established on all mussels from the ocean shore of California extending from the California-Oregon boundary south to the California-Mexican boundary, including San Francisco bay.

It prohibits the taking, sale or offering for sale, of mussels in this area, except where permission is granted to take mussels for use as fish bait.

The quarantine went into effect on May 1 and will continue through October 31.

The health department also warns that clams should be cleaned and washed throughly before cooking and that all dark parts should be discarded because the poison when present during May to October is concentrated in the dark parts.

TWO JEFF HITTERS RANK HIGH IN LEAGUE BATTING

Don Delbon and Larry Blanchard, who always rated right at the top in PAL basketball scoring, stand well up in the ranks for varsity hitting to date.

In seven league games (not including Tuesday's contest), Delbon ranks third in league batting, with 8 for 18 and a .444 mark.

Blanchard, who has connected with 8 for 22, is fourth with a hefty .400. The Jeffs' John Madden and Ray Rosa stand 13th and 14th in league batting with marks of .312 and .304, respectively.

Leading the league batting parade is John Witherspoon of South San Francisco, with .578 (11 for 19), while his teammate Agliola has a spanking .467, to claim runer-up spot.

In team batting Jefferson ranks four with .257. South City leads this category with .304.

Two local hurlers, Joe Lewkowitz and Delbon, rank high in the league pitching department.

Lewkowitz, who has pitched 32½ innings, more than any other league hurler, has four wins, one loss, for an .800 mark, fifth in the PAL.

Delbon, who has gone 16 2/3 innings, is sixth with one win, one loss, for a .500 record.

Lewkowitz has whiffed 31 batters, an effort topped by only two league moundsmen. Lewkowitz' four wins puts him in first place with Bob Blakeslee of South San Francisco for number of victories.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra hospital.

Scott and his wife had been employed at Tanforan during the present meeting. Their permanent address was Rt. 2, Box 51, Oakdale.

Scott, a native of Woodland, played with Chicago in 1926 and 1927 and with Pittsburg in 1928. He then played several years with the San Francisco Missions.

Scott is survived by his wife, a brother, two sisters and a daughter, Marjery.

Trout fishing should be excellent along the Kern River and its tributaries in the Kern county area as the season opens there on May 2, according to the National Automobile Club. Streams are low and well stocked.

JEFF VARSITY SEVENTH IN TRACK FINALS -- WEBB WINS LIGHTWEIGHT DASH

Jefferson high's cindermen came home from the Stanford track Friday with two sevenths and a fifth, but only one individual first place to call their own in the PAL finals.

While the varsity was left without a single win, Wayne Webb of the 30s came through with an 8.3 triumph in the 75-yard dash, giving his teammates most of their 14 points—seventh place.

The unlimiteds, also taking seventh, could master only a second—that by Al Schenone in the 880.

But Coach Ernie Ribera could find no fault with Schenone's effort in coming in second behind Lincoln's Don Bowden—his winning time of 1:57 was the best this year in northern California.

Larry Allen gave Jefferson additional points by pulling a surprising fourth in the mercurial 880-yard varsity race.

Len Monson added a few digits by pulling in fourth in the 440, won in 50.7.

The only other varsity points came in the 880 relay, where the local quartet posted a third. The event was won by San Mateo in 1:33.1.

In the 30s, Webb also gained a third in the 330, which was won in 37.3 by Walrath of Willow Glen.

Dave Coates managed a fifth in the 660 for the 30s.

In the 20s division, local point making was mainly accounted for by Lowell Klaisner, who ran third in the 75 and second in the 150. Chuck Durham of Capuchino captured the 150 in the good time of 16.7.

Jeffry Sullivan gave the Jeffs a fourth in the 120-yard low hurdles, which were won in 14.5 by Dick Lee of San Mateo, a new PAL record.

JEFF SWIMMERS SPLIT WITH LINCOLN HIGH

Jefferson high's swimmers split a three-division swimming meet with Lincoln high of San Jose last week at the local pool.

The Indians took the 30s, 58 to 10, and swept the 20s, 46 to 8, but were edged out in the varsity, 39 to 36.

Absence of Jeffs' star medley relay performer Thor Oftedahl was a big factor in the varsity's loss, as they were beaten out in the relay by three yards.

THE OUTDOORS

Commission Worried

LOS ANGELES—The reported plan of the department of the interior to whittle off 2500 acres of the federal Klamath-Tule lake waterfowl refuge in California for 28 veterans homesteads has the California fish and game commission worried.

The five-man commission was told at its last meeting that:

1. The estimated annual income to the federal government from the 28 homesteads would amount to about $50 per acre;

2. Hunters spent 20,000 man days of shooting on the public hunting grounds last year and 37 per cent of them were veterans;

3. Aside from the local economic advantage of a waterfowl management area over small homesteads, the Klamath-Tule lake refuge is widely recognized as the keystone unit in joint federal-state efforts to prevent widespread crop damage by ducks in the Sacramento valley and points south.

Commission President William J. Silva of Modesto said the homesteading proposal would "create an enormous amount of trouble." Commissioners formally reaffirmed their previous opposition to withdrawal of the refuge lands for agricultural purposes.

Gordon Gets P[ost]

SACRAMENTO — Seth Gordon, director of the Californ[ia] department of fish and gam[e] has been notified by Maj. Gen. Merritt A. Edson (USMC ret.), executive director of the National Rifle association, of Gordon's election to the NRA board of directors.

Gordon previously served 8 years as a director then dropped out for three years. He said he accepted a directorship again because of his lifelong interest in safe shooting and because California has more NRA members than any other state. He is a life member of the rifle association.

Black Powder O.K.

LOS ANGELES—Because there has been no evidence of fish deaths since California seismic operators switched from dynamite to black powder in the underwater search for oil, the fish and game commission approved a request of the Standard Oil company to begin seismic operations April 1 between Point Sur, Monterey county, and the Oregon border.

It is the first such permit okeyed for northern California coastal waters, and will be issued jointly with the state lands commission. The fish and game body is concerned only with the possible loss of fishlife, while the lands commission regulates other phases of the operations.

Before the permit expires on July 1, the survey crew should know if there are any large oil deposits off the rugged northern California coast. A Standard spokesman told commissioners that the company was going into northern waters "mainly as a matter of interest and not with great hopes of finding oil."

Elaborate tests were made last year by the department of fish and game and the Scripps Institution of Oceanography to determine the effects of black powder blasts on fish and shellfish. With representatives of sportsmen's groups, the press and governmental agen-

Local Seaman Is In Korean Waters

Ignatius A. J. Lowry, yeoman seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lowry of 40 West Cavour street, Daly City, and husband of the former Miss Renee E. Matsen of Selina, Utah, works in the Air Office of the attack carrier USS Valley Forge, operating off the east coast of Korea with Task Force 77.

A graduate of Sacred Heart high school, San Francisco, Lowry enlisted in the Navy in March, 1947, and was called to active duty with the Reserves in Jan. 1952.

cies acting as observers, the series of tests proved that fishlife loss is negligible when operators follow the stringent lands and fish and game commissions regulations.

Under full-time surveillance by employees of the two state agencies on each boat, Standard in cooperation with the Humble Oil company will blast in these areas.

1. Between Point Sur and Point San Pedro, San Mateo county;
2. Between a point west of Tennessee Cove, Marin county, and Punta Gorda, Mendocino county;
3. Between Punta Gorda and the California-Oregon border.

Close Cachuma Lake

SANTA BARBARA—At the request of the Santa Barbara county board of supervisors and local sportsmen's groups the California fish and game commission has closed Cachuma lake to all fishing until the opening of the trout fishing season in 1954.

Supervisors sought the closure of the newly-formed public water supply reservoir until sanitary facilities are available for the expected influx of anglers. Thousands of trout have been planted in the lake this year by the department of fish and game and the emergency ban will allow the fish to better establish themselves.

Sh¢ Pollution Funds

SACRAMENTO — California's anti-pollution campaign needs more money, more comprehensive planning and full cooperation from shore-located industries, in the considered opinion of the state department of fish and game sanitary engineer.

Unless these means are achieved, warns Robert M. Paul of the conservation agency, the state's bays and streams in the foreseeable future may become as barren of fishlife and as nauseous to residents as some eastern waters which today are horrible examples of unnatural resources.

"The slaughter of tons of fish in a major California stream by a deluge of sewage from a broken levee is dramatic," Paul says. "But more serious in the long run is the insidious discharge of toxic materials which rob a stream of its oxygen, slime-over and smother its gravelled spawning beds, and permanently drive out all desirable forms of aquatic life."

Conservationists today are faced with pollution problems brought about by new industrial techniques, Paul relates. Our future problems will include agricultural poisons, radioisotopes and the household-type detergent, he predicts.

There is increasing evidence that the ordinary dishpan type of detergent may be a first-order poison to acquatic life once the residue drains into a stream. Ordinary sewage treatment processes apparently have little effect on detergents. Amounts as small as 10 to 20 parts per million of water can kill fishlife.

There is also the ever-increasing possibility of radioactive pollution.

Present dilution capacities of California's waterways can adequately handle treated metropolitan and industrial sewage and and prevent permanent harm to fresh water and migratory fishes, but not so in the future. The state's anticipated population and industrial growth soon will outstrip present treatment facilities—and, at the present rate of planning, its future control projects too, Paul asserts.

Today San Francisco bay and its great river tributaries, California's largest aquatic resource outside the Pacific ocean itself, are the areas where the least pollution control work has been done, according to a November report of the U. S. public health service.

To correct current abuses and prepare for the future pollution control must go hand-in-hand with stream flow maintenance and habitat improvement, Paul warns. Ideally this should be a joint project of all state and federal conservation agencies.

Asserting the problem of pollution isn't new, only aggravated, Paul quotes Samuel Taylor Coleridge on a ditty written after a trip to Cologne around 1800:

"The river Rhine, it is well known,
Doth wash your city of Cologne;
But tell me, nymphs! What power divine
Shall henceforth was the river Rhine?"

LOCAL VFW PLANS FOR BUDDY POPPY CAMPAIGN IN THIS AREA

Dennis Dunn, of 142 Clay street, South San Francisco, will direct the 1953 Buddy Poppy campaign of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 9921, Commander A. L. Cuykendall announced today.

At the same time, Commander Cuykendall made known that the post has selected May 22 as the date for its community-wide poppy solicitation.

"We hope that this year everyone residing in Broadmoor Village, Garden Village, Westlake, Colma and Daly City will wear a Veterans of Foreign Wars Buddy Poppy," said Commander Cuykendall. "Wearing the Buddy Poppy will be their evidence of regard for the welfare of others."

It is proposed to attract the active co-operation of scores of residents of the community in working side by side with members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies' Auxiliary unit in selling the replica of flowers that grow so profusely on Flanders' fields.

Both Commander Cuykendall and Committee Chairman Dunn placed emphasis on the fact that proceeds of Poppy sales are used to help maintain the VFW national home, Eaton Rapids, Michigan, to operate the national VFW rehabilitation and welfare department and to minister locally to needy veterans and their dependents.

BAR PATRON SUES KIRCHHUBEL FOR $20,000 DAMAGES

Says Bar "Portrait" Ruined Reputation

A $20,000 damage suit against George Kirchhubel for posting an allegedly defamatory picture of one of his patrons on the back bar went into its final stages yesterday in Judge Murray Draper's Superior court in Redwood City.

Edward Dugan, 53-year-old painter of 1837 McAllister street, San Francisco, the plaintiff, complained that Kirchhubel posted a damning photo of him in a conspicuous place in Kirchhubel's tavern.

The picture, assertedly taken in August, 1951, at the local tavern, shows Dugan sitting at the bar with his head down, evidently in a relaxed state, with a high ball in hand.

The photo was allegedly placed on a quarter card, then mounted in a spot on the bar wall.

A caption was written underneath Dugan's countenance. It read: "Vote for Ed 'Honest John' Dugan."

Directly beneath this slogan was written: "Alert! Wide awake! Get on the job with Dugan."

Dugan claims his reputation was damaged as a result of the "poster."

He said his friends "ridiculed" him after dropping into Kirchhubel's and seeing the picture.

Frank Blum, attorney for the defendant, attempted yesterday to prove that, in effect, Dugan's reputation was not damaged, since he was a regular patron of the establishment.

Dugan admitted he was a steady customer, but staunchly denied that he had political aspirations such as were indicated on the card.

John Shortridge of Redwood City is the plaintiff's attorney.

Frances Nenstiel Is Honored At Colma Vista Grande Meet

Mrs. Nenstiel also was presented a corsage, a cake and many gifts from the organization and members.

Following closing ceremonies refreshments were served by Marge Lynch, hospitality chairman, and her committee.

Mrs. Warren announced the installation of new officers of the Auxiliary and Aerie will be held May 28 in the Masonic Temple, 17 Hillcrest drive, at 8:30 p.m.

PLANNERS GIVE O.K. TO PG&E APPLICATION

With only three members present Monday the planning commission voted to approve the PG&E's application to have their substation site in the Abbey Homestead area zoned light-industry.

Commissioners William Pinney and Val Franz voted in favor of the re-zoning, while Sanford Vickers voiced the sole negative vote.

Representatives of the PG&E were present to argue for establishment of the sub-statioin in the Abbey area, explaining that the need for electrical power in this area was becoming critical.

Questions Location

Vickers questioned the location of the site, which will be adjacent to the Colma school. He also said he considered it "poor planning" since the sub-station would be established in an area originally planned for residential development.

The commission will relay their recommendation to the city council for their final action.

Special Meet

The planners also set for next Thursday night a special meeting with Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Building Inspector George Hopman on the subject of fire zone 1, which includes most of the Mission street business section.

The meeting is planned with an eye toward "easing restrictions" in the zone. At present a four-hour wall is mandatory for buildings.

As the commission points out, when two buildings are erected adjacent to one another, they are both required to install the four-hour wall, thus giving and eight-hour wall between the buildings.

Some allowance may be made whereby the builders can get together and each establish a two-hour wall, thus fulfilling the zone requirement with the combined thickness of the walls.

The application of William J. Zapettini, who plans to establishing a skating rink in the vicinity of Skyline boulevard, was laid over until a later date by the commission.

Close Lausanne

The planners also agreed to close Lausanne street between Gambetta and Thiers to allow the elementary school district to construct a new school there.

H. Z. Weibel, superintendent, and Frank Klassen, engineer of the district, were present and agree to dedicate certain of the land in the area to streets, allowing access around the planned school.

New Pershing PTA President Takes Over At Meeting

Tuesday's meeting of the General Pershing PTA saw new president, Mrs. Evelyne Robertson, bringing down the gavel for the first time.

A community sing was led by Mrs. William Tergis, past president, followed by a play, "Fresh and Variable Winds," presented by the Jefferson union high school drama department, conducted by Eunice Seaton.

The cast was composed of five drama students, Ron Christensen, Beth Allen, Al Long, Jan Sproule, and JoAne Ruocco, who turned in commendable performances.

Following the play, Mrs. Catherine Peltenberg of the mental health society of San Francisco directed a discussion on the play.

At the PTA's next meeting "Family Vacations" will be the topic.

Those interested have been invited to join the General Pershing group on June 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the school.

MAN IN CLIFF FALL REPORTED DOING BETTER

A [illegible]-year-old Daly City machinist who lay trapped in his car bleeding Friday for nearly 11 hours was reported doing "quite a bit better" at Junipero Serra hospital yesterday.

John E. Merrill, of 754 Crocker street, lay in his vehicle from 10 a.m. until late Friday morning after his car had careened off the Coast highway, one mile south of Skyline boulevard intersection.

After a dramatic rescue operation by Sheriff's deputies Al Ludwig and Larry Dini and state highway Patrolman Robert Dickinson, Merrill was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital for emergency treatment.

He suffered from shock, exposure and loss of blood.

Hospital attendants yesterday said Merrill had "probable concussion" and considerable cuts and bruises around the head, but was resting well.

Merrill was brought to safety by the officers, who descended the cliff at the end of a tow truck cable and eased the victim into a "rescue" basket.

Daly City Younger Set Greets May Day

DALY CITY'S YOUNGSTERS, maintaining a tradition that has been brought down through the centuries, do their part in ushering in the May Day Friday. With gala marches, May pole cavorting, and gay costume, the young fry of the elementary schools put on a good show of exuberance to mark the festive day. In top photo are shown the queen and her entourage at Jefferson elementary school celebration. Left to right are: Jan Monfrans, Joan Hillman, Carol Johnson, Carla Gomez, Janice Snyder, Jan Walker, Queen Sharon Sussman, Carolyn Thuener, Judith Silvestri, Lucille Whitney, Orlene Domenichelli and Joyce McCowan. Crown bearer is David Nannini. In center picture, H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the elementary district, crowns Her Royalty Lynda Olson. Attendants, were Sharon Ellingson, Carol Ann Van Ham, Marilyn Concillo, Karen Colyear, Lynn Farrell and Susan Scheidler. Bearing the crown was Lee Lester. At bottom, the royal retinue is shown at R. S. Thornton shcool, where the gala May revelry originated. Left to right are: Sandra Larsen, Sharon Carr, Randy Robertson, Queen Joanne Picci, Wendy Gust and Joanne Jacobsen. From the throngs of excited parents who watched the doings and the jubilance expressed by the small fry, it is expected the May Day function will become an annual affair at the local schools.

DALY CITY MEN ATTEND JOINT DINNER MEETING

Cooperation between the community chest and the council of social agencies was the keynote of the joint dinner meeting held last Thursday, of the board of directors of both agencies at the Peninsula YMCA in San Mateo.

Attending from Daly City were R. I. McLelland, local nurseryman, who is chairman of membership for the council; Fred Bertetta and J. A. Rohl, board of members of the community chest.

Reporting on the Western Conference of Chests and Councils in Riverside last week, Mrs. Donald K. Grant, president of the Council, emphasized that the best contribution both groups can make to community service is cooperation in planning and budgeting. "The spirit is more important than structural relationship," said Mrs. Grant. In many communities like San Mateo where the Chest and Council are separate organizations, cooperation is obtained through overlapping on boards, budget committees and policy committees.

Donald K. Grant, president of the Community Chest, in reporting on a workshop on "Chest-Council-and United Fund Relationships" visualized the budget operation as the synchronizing gear which keeps the planning by the Council and the fund raising by the Chest both going in the same direction at the same speed. "Budgeting is the financial forecast of services" said Mr. Grant. "It appraises the validity of the program, the dollars available and the desires of the donors. The total result is to get the best possible services for the community."

Registration For Kindergarten Will Be Held May 22

Kindergarten registration will take place throughout the Jefferson elementary school district on Wednesday, May 22, at all schools housing kindergartens.

Kindergartens are located at General Pershing, Woodrow, Jefferson, Westlake and Garden Village schools.

Those whose surnames begin with letters from A to L will register from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, while those with surnames from M to Z will register from 1 to 3 p.m.

The state law requires children to have been four years old on or before Dec. 2, 1952, to be eligible to attend kindergarten.

Parents have been asked to bring their children's birth certificates with them when registering and to report to the principal's office for instructions for places of registration in each building.

All prospective kindergarten children should be registered at the proper time.

Proceeds Of Whist To Go To Youth Group

A whist party will be held at the Masonic hall on Wednesday, May 27, at 8:30 p.m. for the benefit of a local youth organization sponsored by the Sterling Park community association.

Refreshments will be served and prizes will be awarded.

LARGE TURNOUT AT CROCKER FOR PTA OPEN HOUSE

The recent open house held at the Crocker school saw a large turnout of parents on hand.

In the absence of the new Crocker PTA president, Mrs. John Eckert, who was attending the state convention, Mrs. George Freeland, vice president, acted as official greeter and registrar for the PTA.

Mrs. Klimz, Mrs. Antonio and Mrs. Sorenson were hostesses for the evening, serving cookies and punch.

Jr. hostesses and door keepers were Miss Darlene Cross, Miss Lynn Antonio and Miss Johanne Eckert.

Highlights of the evening were Miss Vicain's flowers and Mrs. Clarke's insect exhibit.

All rooms had on hand displays of the children's work.

In the hall was a mural depicting schools of the past, and showing new schools to be built, Vista Grande and Olympia.

The artists in charge were Barry McVeigh and Charles Carter.

The regular PTA meeting will be held in the school library Tuesday at 8 p.m. at which time a Gladding and McBean technicolor sound film on pottery will be shown.

COLMA PTA USHERS IN MAY DAY WITH PROGRAM FOR JEFF, THORNTON SCHOOL

The Colma PTA ushered in May Day with a program for the Jefferson elementary and the R. S. Thornton schools with even the weather man cooperating.

Colwell, principal, the May Queen, Joanne Picchi, was crowned by Mrs. Sillick, representing Mrs. Sanford Vickers who was at the state convention in Long Beach.

In the afternoon the Jefferson elementary students were served luncheon. Bugler John Tealdi opened the festivities. A few words of introduction were made by Mrs. Gene Andrus and her co-chairman, Mrs. John C. Wiesner, followed by a welcome from Miss Marie H. Traynor, principal. Mrs. Sillick extended a greeting from the Colma PTA.

Coordinator of physical education, Dennis Huajardo, was master of ceremonies. First on the program was a grand march by all the pupils. It was followed by accordian solos by Lyn Kirkhofer and Richard Landi.

Jefferson chose Sharon Lee Sussman for their May Queen. She was crowned by Mrs. H. F. Sillick. Queen Sharon's ladies-in-waiting were Jan Walker, Judith Silvestri, Carla Gomez, Carol Johnson, Janice Snyder, Carolyn Thuener, Jim Monfranz, Lucille Whitney, Arlene Domenichelli, Joan Hillman and Joyce McCowan. The crown-bearer was David Nanni. Every class participated in a variety of acts, songs, rhythm band, dramatized songs, dancing and folk dancing, in addition to the traditional May Pole dance.

The committee thanked all the teachers, parents and students who assisted so ably. Special credit to the following:

Dance Time For Village School Tots Thursday Morning

Every Thursday morning at the Village Play school, nursery rhyme characters and fairy tales come to life as the children create them in dance. Under the direction of Dick Ford, creative dance instructor and a member of the San Francisco Dance Players, the tiny tots interpret stories that they may make up themselves as well as familiar stories.

The children are divided into two groups, the older and the younger ones. The older group dances first. Ford places a large hoop in the center of the floor around which all the children seat themselves. He begins a story and the children portray by dance the action the story unfolds, adding to it from their imagination.

Gardening

IS FUN FOR ALL THE FAMILY

THE RECORD Garden Section

SCARLET SAGE IS PLANT THAT ADDS GARDEN COLORS

A time-tested recipe for bold red masses of garden color hard to equal in uniformity and brightness is: Plant salvia (scarlet sage). And do so now; when you see it brightening up some one else's garden, it will usually be too late to plant, as this vivid annual requires several months to reach full bloom.

Well-started plants of both dwarf and medium-tall salvia now are generally available in flats, according to the California Bedding Plant Advisory Board. Both types are the same dazzling red, but the dwarf form matures about two weeks earlier. It grows 15"-18" high, with short dense florets. The medium form grows 20"-24" high, and has long, loose blossoms.

Both types should be planted in a warm, sunny location with rich, loose soil and good drainage. Salvia is not temperamental and requires little care other than your regular garden watering and fertilizing.

The bright red of salvia combines nicely with deep blues, oranges and pure whites. Among the better companion plants are delphinium, giant marigolds and white zinnia for backgrounds; stock, snapdragon or Blue Perfection ageratum for interplanting; and dwarf ageratum, Melody or Yellow Pigmy marigold or some good white petunia as a high border. For a low edging, try white alyssum, blue lobelia or dwarf white begonia.

Salvia also stands well alone. And next fall, when the rest of the garden is folding its wings, a bed of salvia planted this month still will be a blazing mass of color.

PLANNING HOME GARDENS. Representatives of the leading Peninsula garden clubs are pictured above as they organized to start planning with San Mateo County Fair and Floral officials for the installation of artistic home gardens at the forthcoming Fair-Fiesta, August 14 through August 22. Every type of home garden which thrives in this county, ranging from the old fashioned to the semi-tropical, will feature the exhibits of the many garden clubs. Pictured (standing from left to right) are Mrs. Edward Gray, Mrs. L. R. Litchfield, Mrs. Thelma Hellman, Mrs. Kenneth Lauder, Mrs. Oscar Thayer, Mrs. Leslie Areman, Jack Gibson, landscape engineer for the fair-fiesta; Mrs. H. L. Boos, Mrs. Frank Soper, Mrs. T. L. Williams, Mrs. E. McGinnis, Mrs. J. E. Younger, Mrs. W. H. Clover and Mrs. H. A. Griffith. Seated (left to right) are Mrs. H. T. G. Gibson, Mrs. R. P. Wiseheart, Mrs. C. G. Szanik, Mrs. W. H. Whaley, general chairman of the group; William M. Wilson, general manager of the fair-fiesta; Mrs. Robert Kahn, group counsellor and Mrs. J. J. Mattus. Manager Wilson, in addressing the group of garden club representatives, outlined plans which promise to make this year's San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta one of the major attractions of its kind.

ZINNIA STANDS SUMMER HEAT, BOARD REPORTS

Few plants will stand up through burning summer heat waves better than our old garden favorite the zinnia. Each year sees steady improvements in this grand flower family, which endears itself to us by its diverse color range and multitude of forms.

According to the Bedding Plant Advisory Board, zinnia plant mixtures generally available in flats contain practically all shades of rainbow with the exception of the true blues. And the sizes offered range from Tom Thumbs up to Giant Dahlia flowered type growing 3' high with multitudes of saucer sized flower heads.

Plant your zininas in the sun and in a level bed. Irrigation is preferred to overhead sprinkling. Especially in the late afternoon, sprinkling encourages mildew. Fertilize heavily. Pinch out the first bud to encourage lateral growth, and spray regularly for aphis.

Zinnias combine well with many warm weather plants but, due to their striking color range, they seem to show to best advantage in straight mass plantings. The dwarf forms are excellent for edging a bed of taller varieties. Yellow marigolds, blue delphinium and ageratum and such good white petunias as Snowstorm blend in well with zinnias and share the same cultural requirements.

An extra dividend from zinnias is their profuse bloom. You will get dozens of bright floral arrangements from even a midium sized bed. The flowers keep fairly well, but the stems should be clipped and the water changed daily.

HOBBY SHOW

List of those who are working to make next weekend's Daly City Youth Hobby show a success was announced this week by Eve Hobbs, chairman.

Those present at the last coordinating meeting to plan for the event being held May 16 and 17 in the community center were: Mrs. J. Tolle, Miss E. Kennedy, Mrs. M. Vicain, Miss B. Sharp, Miss M. Tobias, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Fisher, E. Rose, D. Pagani, T. Scholten, M. Hansen, A. Garabaldi, N. Leonoredakis, Mrs. L. Boskey and Mrs. M. Markgarf.

The hobby show is being sponsored by local Druid organizations, in cooperation with school teachers and officials.

COUNTY'S BUSINESS STILL ON UPSWING

Fees for handling papers in the county recorder's office reached $18,017.75 for the month of April, nearly $4000 more than taken in the same month in 1952.

A total of 7401 papers were handled by the office for the month, as compared with 5884 the previous year.

Marirages hit 148 during April this year, 27 more than were recorded in April a year ago.

It's Time To Think About Summer Plants

By Shirl Mollette
Daly City Garden Club

I choose to write about San Francisco's official flower, the Dahlia, as now is the time to give thought for summer and fall color and blossoms in your total landscaping scene. The dahlia family is large and appealing in every color and form from seedlings, pompon and the large specimen varieties. Success is assured if one will follow a few fundamental rules. No where do these flowers grow to perfection as easily as in the bay area.

Variety of Ways

The arrangement of planting beds offer a variety of ways to show dahlias off in many desirable ways. Thought should be given as to color and the size to be attained at the time the dahlias blossom. Planting beds that are raised are desirable in soils that are heavy and where drainage is poor. Also in accenting plants you wish to bring to especial notice.

Soil preparation is important, deep spading and working in manure at least two or three weeks previous to planting the dahlia tubers. The soil should be kept quite moist so the fertilizer will have a chance to penetrate and decompose previous to planting.

Latest Date

May 20th is the latest date the tubers should be planted although later plantings will develop according to the lateness of the cold weather as dahlias definitely will not stand frost. Be certain the soil is well pulverized at planting time. Please remember the stock you plant so consult your nurseryman for selections of the best varieties.

Plant the tubers in a basin dug six inches deep and set the tubers with the eye facing up with a supporting stake close by for they will need tying to escape wind damage and for support. Cover the tuber with approximately three inches of soil. Every few days cultivate lightly around the tubers for they demand a loose soil. Keep the ground damp but not wet. As the plant grows pull in the soil gradually allowing at least four inches of plant above the soil till the planting basin is filled to the surrounding level.

Pinch Out Center

As soon as the plant has developed three sets of leaves pinch out the center bud to make the plant grow bushy and strong. As the plant is growing fast it will need plenty of water and tying to the supporting stake with raffia.

The large specimen flower varieties should be disbuded by removing all the side buds leaving one center bud to produce the maximum possible bloom. Single varieties need not be disbudded. As the buds start to form early in August a commercial fertilizer should be used following the manufacturers directions.

Spray Successful

Sucking and chewing insects are liable to attack dahlias so any good spray for this type of insects will be successful in keeping the plants healthy.

Most important for good cut flowers is to avoid picking them in the heat of the day. Early morning is best for this is when the flower is freshest. Remove the lower leaves and plunge the stem into hot water for a minute then cold water which will assure a longer lasting flower. Remember the dahlia blossom will reflect the good stock and care for their development.

Dig As Tops Die

The tubers may be dug as soon as the tops die down and store in a dry, dark and airy space so as to utilize them for next years planting stock. Be certain to label the tubers at storage time for they all very nearly alike.

Good Used Cars come to Ford Dealers
(and so should you)

What's happening is that lots and lots of people want new '53 Fords. So day after day they keep turning in cars so good as to make a Scotchman shudder! (Some of these cars come close to being as good as new!)

And would you believe it?

Most of these cars have had only one owner—a careful owner (though not, we admit, an old lady who never got a speeding ticket!) Lots of these cars are just one or two year old babies. (Probably their owners were waiting 'til they could get a new Ford!)

Here are some examples:

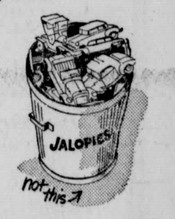

1951 FORD 8 CONVERTIBLE
Beautiful Flamingo Red with Matching Upholstery
RADIO - HEATER - OVERDRIVE

1952 CHEVROLET STYLELINE DELUXE
2-Door - Very Clean

1947 DODGE 4-Door CUSTOM SEDAN
Spotless Throughout

Come in and Check Our Values!

Sure, we get some jalopies (who doesn't?). But we don't keep 'em. If used cars don't come up to our exacting A-1 standards, we just won't sell them to you. Come in and see yourself—there are no jalopies here.

So the moral is: If you want a good used car, come where good used cars come. Come here.

Glamour Lesson for the Bride

By ANN GARY—ANS Features

LUCKY IS THE BRIDE who can boast an electric washer among her wedding gifts! It takes more than luck, however, to get really glamourous clean clothes even with a brand new washer. A good start is to know just what accessories are important, and these you can list on the fingers of one hand—really hot water, and lots of it; soap or synthetic detergent that is recommended for the family wash; a bluing that comes in bead form and goes right into the wash water with the soap; and, of course, a water conditioner, if you live in a hard water area.

Study the grocer's shelves of laundering items. Read the labels on the various boxes and be sure you get the laundering accessories that you need. Follow exactly the directions given. Study, too, the booklet of directions that came with your washer—remember, all manufacturers, from bead-bluing to the washer itself, are as anxious as you are to have their products do a good job. The proper combination plus the proper use will give the newest bride sparkling clean clothes—clothes she would be proud to have her mother-in-law see.

Something else is important—the size of the washer load as well as the items in it. Manufacturers of washing machines usually say you can put up to nine pounds of clothes in one washer load, but "underloading" results in cleaner clothes. Ideally, a 7 or 8-pound load of mixed pieces, some large, some small, will allow free movement of each piece during the washing, and insure the complete removal of soil.

A typical 8-pound load includes 2 sheets, 2 pillow cases, 2 bath towels, 2 men's white shirts, 2 luncheon cloths and about a pound of other small items like dish towels or handkerchiefs. Badly soiled items should be washed separately as well as colored things. Run machine about 5 minutes for lightly soiled clothes, and for badly soiled items, give a second washing in fresh sudsy water. Finish with a thorough rinsing in fresh water right in the machine, and thank your stars that laundering equipment and accessories are not what they used to be in "the good old days."

IT'S FUN TO WEAR GARDEN FLOWERS

by MARY HAZEL DRUMMOND
Author of the book "Styling Corsages With Garden Flowers"

The sun is warm, the skies are blue with occasional white clouds, flowers in the garden are blooming in brilliant colors, a gay contrast to the warm green tones of their stems and leaves. It's nearly summer . . . time for vacations and traveling, and time also for a corsage.

Shoulder Corsage

Flowers play an important though frequently unnoticed part in our lives. Aside from their delicate fragrance and enchanting colors, they give a definite lift to our spirits, whether they are on our living room tables or as a corsage to add beauty to our costumes.

Perhaps growing flowers is your hobby. Nowadays, you know, there's hardly any excuse for not being able to grow your own lovely creations with the help of such modern new discoveries as the Krilium soil conditioner to aid in getting your plants off to a good start.

If you do enjoy the flowers of your labors, there is no reason why you should not get the utmost out of them. It is easy to enhance your costume by wearing your own corsage. No special training, expensive tools or supplies are needed. With a little practice you will be able to fashion flowers into clever styles that will be the admiration of everyone.

Wearing flowers on the left shoulder is probably one of the oldest corsage customs; nevertheless, it remains in good taste in our present day fashions. In the illustration, five pompon zinnias have been arranged into an attractive corsage to add a colorful note to a brown waffle weave dress.

Zinnias are a popular summer and autumn flower. They have a wide color range which gives an opportunity to match or contrast many dress shades. In addition, they are a hardy type of bloom suitable for sportswear.

The following is an accepted method for wiring and taping the zinnias: cut the stem, leaving it one inch in length; wrap a nine inch, medium gauge wire two or three times around the stem, close to the base of the bloom; and tape. Wire and tape each bloom before assembling the corsage.

Wear flowers in your hair! Small zinnias or any other variety of garden flowers are a charming and effective accessory. Follow the contour of your hair-do, or make a flower halo. Just a few small flowers and a dash of imagination will do the trick.

Before wearing flowers, it is a good idea to place them in cold water for two hours or longer. Remember, you want them to look fresh and perky.

Flowers In Your Hair

It is fun to wear flowers, and even more fun to wear flowers that you have grown yourself. Make use of the bright colors in your garden. They will add a festive touch to your summer wardrobe.

RIDGELY CUMMINGS REPORTS:
...from HOLLYWOOD

My phone rang the other evening and when I said hello a strange voice checked my identity and then asked if, for a reasonable consideration, I could spend the following day at Wrigley Field, in the hinterlands of east Los Angeles.

I said I could.

"Wear light-colored summer clothes and be there at 8:45 a.m.," the voice said. "Report to Director Harmon Jones. It's a 20th-Century Fox picture."

A Bleak Day

The next morning at 8:30 I reached the baseball stadium shivering in my light summer clothes. It was one of those bleak, windy, overcast days that the Southern California chamber of commerce never mentions.

First thing I noticed was that the ball park looked different. All the signboards reading "Wrigley" had been removed. Here and there around the L-shaped concrete structure were huge paintings of buffalos. On the square tower at the juncture of the "L" were large signs reading "Bisons."

First familiar face I saw was that of Jack Eringer, a young electronics technician from Detroit who came to Hollywood to break in as a cameraman and who sometimes does extra work. He knew no more than I did about what was going on.

He Too Was Blank

Second friend to appear was George Patrick Graham, an Irish stage actor. George had heard that the picture was called "The Kid From Left Field" and that it starred Dan Dailey. Otherwise he too was a blank.

We checked in with an assistant director, for Harmon Jones was much too busy to bother with us. Then we toured the dank stone tunnels under the stands looking for the coffee wagon. We found it and here I got my first shock. It wasn't free. I had spent two weeks working for Paramount and there everything had been on the studio. But with 20th-Fox you buy your own coffee.

We carried our paper cups up into the stands. It is double-decked, or maybe triple-decked, I'm not sure which for I never got off the playing field level. Therefore most of the seats are roofed over by the seats above. The wind was still howling but the sun was trying to break through and down front, close to where the cameras were set up around home plate, there were some boxes which looked warm and sheltered.

Enter Old Friend

George, Jack and I started down there and on the way we ran into an old friend of mine, a blonde novelist named Carol Hales. Carol was excited. Just the previous day she had received proofs of her new book, "Wind Woman," published by Woodford Press. It should be in the bookstores any day now. She wanted to tell me all about it so she joined us.

We found a sunny spot and were drinking our coffee and yapping away when a tall young man in a green sport shirt came down and chased us out of the box seats, placing us on shady benches high up in the stands.

Carol smiled at him and greeted him by name. After he left she informed us that he was another assistant director, a son of the old-time Prussian movie villian, Eric Von Stroheim, and "an awfully nice guy."

Some Skepticism

Jack expressed some skepticism about this, reasoning that if he had really been nice he would have left us in the sun.

It turned out Carol had worked on the same picture two weeks earlier. At that time 20th-Fox was shooting it with 3-dimensional cameras but on this day they were back to the regular flat technique. I tried to find out why the change had been made and it wasn't until several days later that a studio friend explained it to me.

Stock shots was the reason. In a baseball picture or in fact in most any film a great many of the scenes fixing the time and place are what are known as stock shots. These are sequences filmed of regular baseball games with the stadiums full of excited crowds, trains arriving in jammed stations, big buildings burning and so forth.

Used Over & Over

These are kept in libraries and used over and over again. But 3-D is so new that the studios have not yet built up a backlog of stock shots and to make "The Kid From Left Field" in 3-D would have necessitated waiting for the baseball season to get underway and then arranging to take the shots, or else spending a prohibitive amount of money for paid performers to fill up the ball park and otherwise meet the requirements of the script.

As it was, on this day there were only about 200 of us in the stands. But the scenes in which we figured will give the impression of a huge crowd, for each time a new camera setup was made, we 200 atmosphere players changed seats and arranged ourselves in line with the camera angle so that any way the sense turned it would face full seats.

A Lot of Motion

This meant a lot of moving, which kept us from getting bored since we were continually getting acquainted with new seatmates. Only bad feature was that we never got any sun. In the morning we worked in the shade with bright arc lights shining in our faces. In the afternoon we moved down to the boxes for closeup sequences of players at the dugouts but by that time the sun had disappeared.

Brightest part of the day came at lunch. We were to be served box lunches and Carol had heard that the menu included fried chicken.

Shortly before noon an assistant director split up our little group and assigned me close to the camera, where Dan Dailey dressed as a popcorn vender was shouting his wares. I was stuck but George and Jack slipped off and got down under the stands where the catering service was arranging the lunch facilities. Consequently they got three box lunches apiece.

Got Only One

I hit the tail end of the line and got only one, though I must admit it was generous, with a quarter of a chicken, corned beef sandwiches, cake, fruit, milk, coffee and ice cream.

George and Jack picked up a couple of chesty, aspiring starlets and ensconced themselves for lunch in the same sunny box from which we had been ejected earlier. They had told me where to find them when I was still in the food line but when I got there all the seats were filled, as were those behind them.

Directly in front of them was a box with six seats and only three people. I climbed over the rail and sat down there, turning my back on the three without noticing them and talking to the others, getting acquainted with the girls and kidding Jack and George about their haul and insisting that I should share some of the extra chicken.

Who's Got A Fag?

We were making a lot of noise and enjoying ourselves when a familiar voice inquired in the resonant tones that usually distinguish an actor, "Who's got a cigarette?"

I said I had and then turned to note with some surprise that it was Dan Dailey, the star of the picture. He bummed a match and joined in the conversation. Soon he had introduced me to his companions while I performed the introductions for my group.

With Dailey was a handsome girl whose name I didn't get and a youngish man in dark glasses and an overcoat. His name was Jack Sher. I told him the name was familiar and asked if he wasn't a writer. He admitted he was and then I said I had read his movie stuff in a Sunday supplement called "This Week."

Pleased No End

This pleased Mr. Sher no end and he pointed out with relish to Dailey that it was obvious if he ever quit the movies he could easily go back to making a living from the magazines.

It turned out that Sher had written the original story from which this particular film was being made and had also written the screen adaptation. In other words he was the big man on location, equal in importance to the star for Hollywood writers are increasing in stature and technical responsibility these days.

Both Dan Dailey and Jack Sher proved to be extremely pleasant luncheon companions, without a bit of "side" or false pretentiousness.

Nothing Quotable

Both were equipped with keen sense of humor, fast on the snappy retort and witty comeback, with the result that laughter was continuous and when we broke up to go back to work the only things I had learned which are quotable here are that Lloyd Bridges was playing a secondary lead in the film and that in 1947 Sher wrote a novel called "The Cold Companion," which I must read sometime.

We worked until exactly 5:45 p.m. If the cameras had rolled five minutes longer we would have been eligible for overtime, which, so the oldtimers told me, amounts to a quarter of a day's check. For some of the featured players that would have been a pretty figure.

There will be more about the guy in left field in another column for I was one of the few who got called back for additional scenes. And, in spite of the weather, that first day was a lot of fun.

Sutro Heights in San Francisco, once a renowned fashionable gathering place, is now a public park.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Well neighbors, another week has passed and it is time once more to let you know the news that has come to your "town crier." The biggest event to at least a majority of the population was the opening of trout season. As usual, there were lots of reasons for the fellows either coming home empty-handed or with little ones.

This is the best that I have ever heard, so am passing it on to you. Seems the very popular grocer, ROY COMBS, had gotten an early start and had bagged the limit of big ones. Well, as he was hiking back to the car, what should come after him but a great big bear. Not being noted for the hundred yard dash, Roy thought that discretion would be the better part of valor and threw one of the fish to the bear. This went on for miles with Roy throwing a fish to the bear each time it go too close. Finally he reached his car and low and behold! He had sacrificed all the fish to the bear. Can't tell for sure whether this is a fish story of just bear facts. Wonder just where Roy went fishing?

MR. AXEL LUNN, of Los Banos avenue, has all the best wishes of his neighbors as he left Monday for a visit to Sweden. This trip has been planned for a long time and we all hope he has lots of fun while seeing old friends and his family. Bon Voyage, Axel.

Heard from the wandering minstrels of Daly City, "Foofie and Cleon" who have now gotten as far as Allenwood Manor, Washington. They are at present visiting his sister and their next stop will be Montana.

News and Views

There are birthdays to be congratulated this past week. First of all, MR. JOHN MULLER, of Hillcrest Drive was given a surprise birthday dinner which was attended by members of his family and close friends. Happy Birthday, Johnny, from all the rest of the neighbors.

MR. WILLIAM HOBBS of Risel street was also the recipient of a surprise birthday dinner. This affair also was in the nature of a surprise and was enjoyed by all who came to wish "Bill" a happy birthday.

The "old flu bug" is still on the prowl. The latest victims being MR. and MRS. ART ALVISO, formerly of our town. From latest reports they are now able to be up and around and make the trip back to see their family and friends in Daly City.

A Stanley party was held at the home of MRS. LYNNE BOSKEY of Alp street last week. Those who attended were MESDAMES MARIE MARKGRAF, MAY BAKER, WINNIE EVANS and MRS. BOSKEY SR. There were many who could not attend but turned in orders knowing this was a benefit affair for the boys in the Letterman hospital. Remember neighbors, if anyone would like to go to the hospital to visit or to donate towards the prizes given each month all they have to do is get in touch with LYNNE BOSKEY at PL. 5-0902 or PL. 5-4154 in the evening.

MRS. JULIA JORDAN, past president of the American Legion Auxiliary, has moved to Fairfax. She is a member of the Friendly Twelve who are all going to visit her in her new home this week. This visit will be in the nature of a house warming and knowing the gals who belong to this group, it should be lots of fun.

One never really appreciates the people who form that well known group called "your neighbors and mine" until they aren't there. CHARLIE COSTELLO, the mailman in the Los Banos-Los Olivos-Hillcrest area is on a well earned vacation. Seems when Charlie was on the route we got our mail at a regular time plus a smile and many a courtesy. This we miss. Our mail gets here but we do miss the smile and kind words that CHARLIE has for all of us. Have a good time, Charlie, but we will all be glad to see you back.

Servicemen

Appr. Seaman RICHARD E. NEGHERBON, formerly of our town, has finished boot camp at San Diego Naval Training Center and is home on leave. Richie will be remembered by many of his friends in our town as he went to OLPH with lots of the present day teenagers. Welcome home, Richie.

It is Poppy time again, neighbors. Every one of the millions of tiny Buddy Poppies is a symbol of the men who have fallen in battle. All over the United States each year the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Ladies Auxiliary sell Buddy Poppies. This year the Old Glory Post 2044 VFW Auxiliary will have as ladies chairmen, MRS. JOSIE VALENTI and MRS. CLARA POKET. The fellows will also be out doing their bit by selling as many poppies as they can. In buying your Buddy Poppy, you salute the veterans of our foreign wars. You help to care for the wounded and their families. Buy your Buddy Poppy with a prayer in your heart for those who have fought to keep our country free. Down through the years, our gallant fighting men have lived those wonderfully inspiring words of our National Anthem:

And this be our motto—"In God We Trust"
And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Remember, neighbors, the boys are still leaving home, still dying and still coming back wounded. There just isn't space to tell the good that is done for "our boys" through each of us buying just one Poppy.

Last week there was an appeal made for blood donors. This is a heart-warming follow-up that the neighbors should know. MRS. EVA HOBBS, who was one of the ladies who worked on this drive at the High School, reports that within a very few minutes she had her ten donors that were asked for immediately. Where did they come from? The STUDENTS of JEFFERSON HIGH. These are the boys that are faced with the future of deciding which branch of the service to enter in a few months. Many have brothers and sisters who are or who have been in the service and they are willing to do their bit even before they are called to serve. Congratulations to the donors and to the fellows who worked so hard to make this drive a success, namely—MR. MELFORD BATTYE and DR. JOHN KARSANT, co-chairmen, and the DALY CITY-COLMA LIONS CLUB.

Items of Interest

Another meeting for the forthcoming Hobby Show was held last week. Everything seems to be all lined up. The meeting was attended by many of the Druids from Hillcrest Circle, Olive Grove and Cypress Circle in addition to members of other organizations. The principals of all the schools were there. MRS. HELEN CHEATHAM represented the school board while MR. MEL HANSEN was there to represent the Scouts. All the youngsters are asked to bring their hobbies to the Memorial Building after school on the 15th. The show will be open on Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon and all day Sunday. The cooperation from all the teachers has been outstanding. The fire department is going to bring and set up the tables and PAUL GREEN is making himself most useful in every way.

Last week as you all know was Public Schools week. It is hoped that you didn't miss going to one of the schools during this time. The children had worked hard and the teachers had everything so nice that it was a pleasure as well as an education to attend. Thornton school cooking class really worked hard fixing a nice lunch for the mothers. MRS. WINNIE EVANS reports that the girls are really good cooks. She should know—she was the only mother who attended the class.

The Druids' dinner given jointly by Hillcrest Circle, Cypress Circle and Olive Grove last Saturday night was voted by all who attended—a huge success. The food was good as well as plentiful and artistically prepared. It was served jointly by the members of the sponsoring organizations. Among those who served were MRS. MARGARET HARPER, MRS. EVA HOBBS, MRS. MARIE MARKGRAF, MRS. LYNNE BOSKEY and the fellows took over the coffee pouring duties. Now that the money has been assured (this was a benefit dinner) here's hoping that the Hobby Show is equally successful. This just goes to show what can be done when the neighbors all get together for a good cause.

Among those who received their First Communion last Sunday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church was BRIAN EAGAN, of Los Olivos avenue. He celebrated the occasion with a dinner attended by members of his family and close friends. Pictures were taken to always remember this event.

Latest Returns

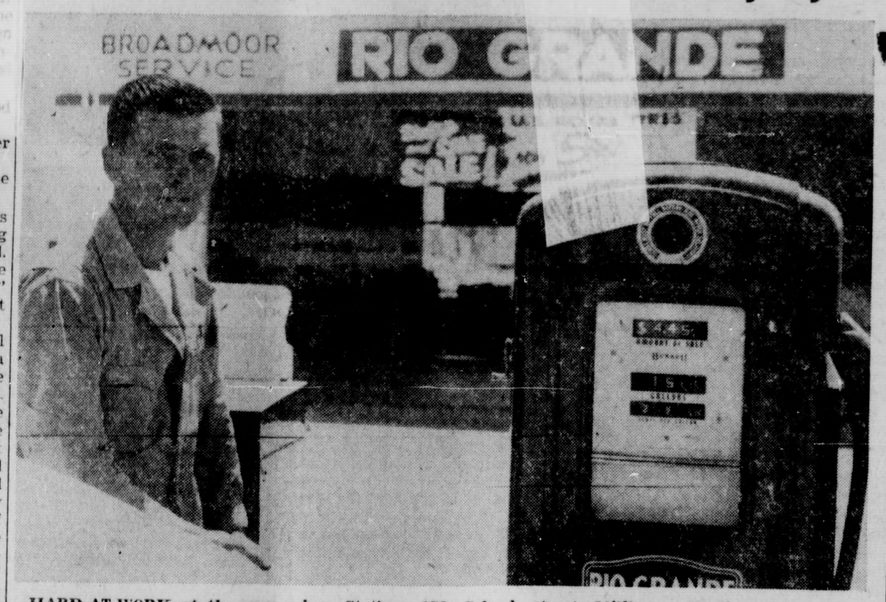

SGT. & MRS. TONY HENESLY, the former MARY SIMMONS of our town, have returned home from Illinois on a 30-day furlough. Tony is in the Air Forces and has re-enlisted and will be stationed at Hamilton Field after his furlough is finished. Welcome home, kids, from your neighbors and mine.

Boys will be boys—but do they have to take such unusual ways about doing it? Several of the younger generation decided to try and drive an L. C. Smith grader down the street the other day. Naturally as this is not one of the subjects taught in the schools, they knew nothing about it. The grader got away from them and thanks to the garage of MR. ROY COMBS being in the way it finally stopped after the boys got panicky and jumped off. The damage to the garage was considerable and it was just lucky that there was large concrete bulkhead there or the car would have also been damaged. It is also very fortunate that the boys themselves came to no damage.

Well neighbors, space being limited, this will be all for this week. The news keeps coming in and if yours is not here look for it in the next column. All news is welcome as are all phone calls at PL. 5-6482. Until next week—bye now.

Two Local Women Given Posts With 17th District PTA

At the April meeting held at the Washington-Burlingame school, Seventeenth District CCPT was highly commended by state president, Mrs. P. D. Bevil for the contribution of personnel to the State Board of Managers. Mrs. Harry Caplan, ably represents the district in her presidential capacity; Mrs. G. J. Sirex is the assistant publicity and State Bulletin Chairman; Mrs. B. D. Ralston is 2nd vice president of the CCPT; and Mrs. E. J. Foley is a state field worker in parent education. Mrs. Bevil spoke on the policy of parent-teacher organizations to be non-sectarian, non-partisan, non-commercial, and especially stressed non-interference with school administration.

Installation of the 1953-54 officers was the focal point of the morning meeting, with Mrs. Bevil reminding each new officer of the duties of her position. Following the ceremony, Mrs. Harry Caplan introduced the following local chairmen for ratification by the group:

Daly City: Mrs. Howard Dunbar, Character Education.

Colma: Mrs. Thomas Mullen, Emblems and Publications; Mrs. Larry Green, luncheon reservations.

YMCA Day Camp Is Open To Westlake, Broadmoor Children

Hiking over nature trails, singing around the campfire, working in crafts, adventuring in the centers of interest in San Francisco—these are the joys and opportunities which face boys and girls who enroll in the YMCA Day Camp — Camp Mo-Coy-A.

John McKinley, executive secretary of the Golden West branch YMCA has just announced that Camp Mo-Coy-A will be open from June 15 to July 24, for the younger fry, ages 6 to 9 years, who live in the areas West of Twin Peaks, including Westlake and Broadmoor.

Day camping is for younger folks who are not yet ready for boarding camp away from home. It provides fun and high adventure in the out of doors—new places to visit and new friends. Each boy or girl will be in a small group of 6-8 friends, under the careful supervision and sympathetic guidance of an older counselor, who has had previous teaching or camp experience.

The site is located in Mountain Lake Park (near the foot of Funston street) and the children's time will be spent between there and the points of interest throughout the city. Camp is in session from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday. Transportation is provided from convenient pick-up centers.

Parents desiring further information should call the Golden West YMCA, SE. 1-1900, or visit the YMCA office at 55 West Portal.
